SOME THOUGHTS ON GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

In the heart of this victorious Easter season when all nature around us is vibrant with the Creator's life, it was my privilege to represent Bishop Knutson and dedicate a new resident wing and extensively refurbished nursing facility at Josephine Sunset Home in Stanwood. This fine institution bears the stamp of effective leadership of Monica Mattson, the Administrator, together with a dedicated staff, cooperative board, and generous support of responsive individuals and congregations.

Having myself a 95-year-old mother residing in the Lutheran Altenheim in St. Louis, I am deeply appreciative of the vital ministry provided by the six partnership nursing facilities in our Synod. On our behalf, in the name of Christ, they are committed to the highest quality care for our loved ones of the elderly community.

Significantly, the dedication of Josephine Sunset Home took place on the afternoon of Good Shepherd Sunday. The image of the Good Shepherd recalls in one idea all the love and compassion of a care-giving God. Compassion, it's woven into the fabric of Jesus' ministry; compassion, it's the mark of his serving style. At the heart of Jesus' care giving is always the hurting individual...the Good Shepherd who leaves the 99 for the sake of the one. And the Compassionate Care-giver par excellence pays the ultimate price and literally puts his life on the line for those in need.

Compassion--that's what ministry is all about. Our nursing homes, together with all the other social ministry organizations in our synod, are not merely recognized by the larger church in a formal, legal way. SMO's are not auxilliary and supplementary, but are an integral and critical part of our church's ministry. Care for the aging, the homeless, the addicted, the battered and bruised in our society, is not an option. The ministry of compassionate care to each and every individual in the flock is the intent of the Good Shepherd.

In my words of appreciation and support for the essential partnership ministry provided by our synod-related SMO's, I know I speak for many:

Thank you for making Christ real and present. Through your serving hands, hurting individuals come to know the Good Shepherd, not only to speak to him, but to touch him. Through your care and love, you permit others in the wider community to see through you the compassionate character of Christ himself.

L. Paul Bartling

STEWARDSHIP NOTES BY Bob Armstrong

I would like to share with you some thoughts on the "Offertory" in our Service. Primarily, it is a time when we present to our Lord our tithes and offerings. I have frequently worshipped in congregations when, in addition to bringing the offering to the Altar, the bread and wine for the Sacrament is also brought forward.

The offering of our gifts of money represents our talents, our toils, and our commitments. It is a time of offering ourselves in thanksgiving to God, for what God has done for us. Because many of us give our offerings on the same schedule in which we are paid--monthly, bi-weekly, weekly--there are times when we worship and we have no monetary offering to give.

If we truly believe that the offering is a time when we give ourselves in thanksgiving to God, then consider doing so at this time in our worship. Consider placing a card in your hymnbook rack or as a bulletin insert, a "Thank You, Lord" card, for worshippers to sign and place in the offering plates. These might even be used by some on the occasion of a special thanksgiving for what God has done for them.

STEWARDSHIP IS EVERYTHING I DO
AFTER I SAY "I BELIEVE".

CONTINUING EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

Deadline soon!!

The Calling-Caring Lab I (see enclosed flyer) takes place August 3-5 and 10-12 at Messiah Lutheran, Auburn. REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS JULY 10. Only the first 90 registrants can be accepted (this is only 30 churches if teams of three are sent), so be sure to register early. Call LITE at 535-7342 if you need another brochure.

Continuing education is receiving renewed emphasis in the ELCA. Ordained clergy and certified lay ministers are now expected to have a CE plan, and congregations/agencies are to provide time/funds for persons they call. CE record forms and helps for planning your continuing education are available from LITE. Look into it today!

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES FOR CHURCH MUSICIANS

"Through the Church the Song Goes On" is the theme for the second biennial conference of the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, which will meet in Las Vegas June 10-13. The conference will feature composer Marty Haugen and church musician, Carole Arenson. The synod office has more information.

Gonzaga University in Spokane announces their Liturgical Music Institute featuring John Foley, S.J., June 18-21. Call the synod office for information.

ENNEAGRAM: A JOURNEY OF SELF-DISCOVERY

Lutheran Social Services and Still Point are offering a series of Enneagram Basic workshops for personal and spiritual growth June 30-July 1. Enneagram is a personality theory that combines the insights of modern psychology with the proven wisdom of several older philosophies. These comprehensive workshops assist one in developing more self-knowledge, self-worth, and better relational skills. Patrick H. O'Leary, S.J., internationally acclaimed speaker, facilitator, consultant, and co-author of the best-selling book, The Enneagram: A Journey of Self-Discovery, will be facilitating these workshops. Please call Fran Davis, LSS, 365-2700, for more information or to register.

NORTHWEST INTERNATIONAL CHRISTIAN MISSION CONFERENCE

The topics for this year's conference are "Gospel, Culture and Media", "Central America: People of a Prophetic Church", and a Bible study of Galatians. The conference is held at Trinity Western University in Langley, B.C. August 6-9. The synod office has registration forms.

SUMMER TRAVEL SEMINAR OPPORTUNITIES

The synod office has information from the Center for Global Education at Augsburg College in Minneapolis regarding several summer travel seminars in Central America. Call 783-9292.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MISSIONARY SPONSORSHIP

Several of our synod congregations are involved in missionary sponsorship. We would like to be able to send the "Soundings" to all of these missionaries, so please call us with the names and addresses of lay and clergy missionaries which your congregation sponsors.

MISSIONARY SPEAKERS AVAILABLE

Rev. Bill Dexheimer, exiled ELCA missionary pastor from El Salvador, is available for speaking in ELCA and ecumenical settings. Requests may exceed availability, so priority is given to large, ecumenical groups. Call the ELCA Div. for Global Mission, 1-800-638-3522.

Susheela Engelbrecht is in the Seattle area until the end of July, on furlough from her missionary work in primary health care in Senegal, and is willing to speak to congregations. Write to her at 1210-10th Ave. East, Seattle, WA 98102.

MISSION 90 VIDEO POSTCARD

If your congregation has not received the blue postcard to order the MISSION90 video series, call the synod office. These videos need to be ordered ASAP by postcard only to guarantee arrival in September. Phone call orders will not be accepted.

NEW PRESIDENT AT LUTHERAN BIBLE INSTITUTE

Dr. Trygve Skarsten, professor of Church History at Trinity Lutheran Theological Seminary, Columbus, Ohio, has accepted the call to be the fourth President of the Lutheran Bible Institute of Seattle. Dr. Skarsten will begin his service July 1, 1990, and has already purchased a home in Issaquah. Dr. Skarsten brings to this position a vast background in world-wide academic and church service.

SYNOD WORSHIP COMMITTEE SEEKS MEMBERS

The synod Worship Committee continues to seek persons interested in serving. Areas of concern include handbells, youth choirs, alternative worship settings, architecture, textiles and bannermaking, hymnody, and training of assisting ministers. Please call Pastor Jim McEachran at 746-2529, or Pastor Dennis Andersen, 783-7900 if you would like to join this committee.

AFTER HURRICANE HUGO

There is still a need for volunteers to help re-build after the destruction of Hugo. Several congregations have pooled resources to send someone from their congregation. Cash contributions and prayers are always needed. A number of people have called the Region 9 office wanting to go to St. Croix, but not knowing of any groups in their area scheduled to go. June 2-17 will be a good time for them to make up a group of people without a group. Call Region 9 in Atlanta, GA at (404) 881-6145 if you know of a group or individuals willing to go.

There is still a great need to re-build areas of South Carolina, also. People have forgotten that the need is still very present since the media coverage has died down. To volunteer in South Carolina, contact Pastor Ginny Aabischer in Charleston, (803) 763-7674.

ELCA BRAILLE AND TAPE SERVICE

Did you know that the ELCA provides a braille and audio tape service? Call (800) 328-4648, ext. 502, and ask for a list of resources and how to obtain materials.

A WORD FROM THE ASSEMBLY NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Thank you to all the people who suggested names for consideration by the 1990 Synod Assembly Nominating Committee. Your help made the job of the committee much easier. Thank you to all those who made positive responses to a nomination. We are sorry that not all the names could be included on the slate, as the committee placed in nomination two names for each position.

The slate of nominees will be included in the assembly delegate packets mailed to congregations. Please remember that there will be opportunity to make nominations from the floor of the assembly if there are other people who are interested and qualified for a position.

Thank you, also, to the people who worked so faithfully on the Nominating Committee, and made my job so much easier.

1990 Assembly Nominating Committee
Janet Labes, Chair

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION STUDY PUBLISHES FINDINGS

For the past three years, the ELCA, along with five other denominations, has participated in a milestone study called Effective Christian Education: A National Study of Protestant Congregations. This study is the largest and most comprehensive assessment ever done of Christian education outcomes in congregations. Participating denominations were Disciples of Christ, ELCA, Presbyterian, Southern Baptist, United Church of Christ, and United Methodist.

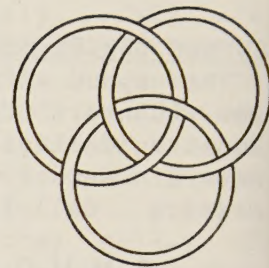

A summary of the ELCA findings was reported in the January 3, 1990, issue of THE LUTHERAN, called "Building a Faith for the 90's". Reprints of this article can be obtained from Augsburg Fortress (#23-6004).

For information on how to order the study findings, call the Search Institute at 1-800-888-7828, or write to 122 West Franklin Avenue, Suite 525, Minneapolis, MN 55404.

SERVICE FOR TRINITY SUNDAY

St. Luke's, Bellevue, is willing to share their Trinity Sunday service which incorporates the Athanasian Creed. The Creed is used as a vehicle for worship, rather than simply as an addition to a regular service. The result is an order of worship for Trinity Sunday which interjects hymns, the lessons, the sermon, prayers, offertory, and communion into the Athanasian Creed. Please call Pastor Tom Kidd with comments or questions regarding this order of worship, 822-7907. A requested donation of two dollars is appreciated to cover costs of reproduction and mailing.

NEW BOOK BY BISHOP MEDARDO GOMEZ

MEDARDO ERNESTO GÓMEZ

Medardo Gomez, Lutheran bishop in El Salvador, has written Fire Against Fire, a book just released by Augsburg. This is the first of Gomez's work available in English. This short book, Gomez's pastoral letter, was published in Spanish in 1989. Background is provided by William Dexheimer, ELCA missionary-in-exile to El Salvador.

The political situation in El Salvador which escalated into repeated death threats forced Gomez and his family into exile in Guatemala in November, 1989. He set up an office-in-exile in Guatemala City until March, 1990, when he returned to El Salvador.

UPCOMING YOUTH EVENTS

YOUTH STEWARDSHIP: YES OR NO?

Have you said Yes or No to "YES"? YES stands for "Youth Education for Stewardship," a project of the synod youth organizations of Region I. It's a challenge from our young people to each other and the church to really involve youth in stewardship education.

Included in the Region I May youth ministry mailing is a YES update by Kelly Graham, a high school senior and YES project coordinator, as well as a Bible study by Marc Olson, a current Holden Village resident who recently chaired the Council of Synod Lutheran Youth Organization Presidents.

The January Region I youth ministry mailing included a YES project description, a youth-written Bible study, and suggestions for congregational involvement.

Kelly, a member of Kent Lutheran, reports that "congregations are beginning to catch the spirit, and are becoming more intentional about youth stewardship." Along with encouraging youth stewardship education, the YES project has a goal of raising $50,000 from Region I youth to support mission projects both locally and nationally.

If you haven't done so yet, act now. Say Yes to YES!

SERVANT EVENTS--WEST

Build a house in Olympia...lead Vacation Bible School in a remote Alaskan island village...work alongside Native American youth in Montana...participate in work with the poor, hungry, and homeless in Seattle or Denver--these are just a few of the nine exciting Servant Events--West opportunities for youth this summer. The events are a combination of hard work, worship, study, and recreation. Participants not only will give much-needed help to the host community, but will learn valuable skills for setting up Servant Events "back home".

Contact Dave Ellingson or Boots Winterstein at the Region I Office, 624-0093, to obtain an informative poster containing dates, locations, descriptions, and contact information.

TWO YOUTH LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS PLANNED FOR AUGUST

Two dynamic speakers are slated for the two Region I 1990 summer youth leadership training schools. Sean McMillan, president of the Metro New York Synod Youth Organization, and Val Starr,

Director for Growth and Mission of the Women of the ELCA, will interact with youth leaders at Leadership Training School--West, August 23-26, at Lutheran Bible Institute, Issaquah. Sean will also address the Leadership School--East, August 18-21 at Flathead Lutheran Camp, Kalispell, Montana.

Both events will include worship, small groups, and practical workshops on such "how to" topics as reviving a youth group, counseling with peers, leading Bible studies, planning worship, organizing retreats, planning a year's program, leading games, and setting up servant events.

Leadership training schools are open to three young people (grades 9-12) and one adult from each congregation. Registration forms will be sent out by early June; registration deadline is July 15. Cost for each participant of $78 includes the cost of a notebook, souvenir bandana, memory book, and group picture.

UPCOMING EVENTS

GOODWILL HERITAGE CELEBRATION PLANNED

A unique celebration has been organized by the Interfaith Council of Washington in cooperation with the Goodwill Exchange Program of the 1990 Goodwill Games.

On June 1 at 8 p.m. in the Seattle Opera House, the Interfaith Choir of Washington, the Seattle Chamber Singers, guest soloists from the Soviet Union, the Peoples Republic of China and the U.S. will join with the Federal Way Philharmonic Festival Orchestra to perform Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. The program will also include "Songs of Heritage", the "Te Deum" by Bern Herbolzheimer of Seattle, and the "Heavens Are Telling" by Haydn.

This event will benefit the Emergency Feeding Program of the Church Council, the Interfaith Council of Washington, and the Federal Way Philharmonic Orchestra. For tickets, call Ticketmaster. For additional information, call 823-0905 or 323-1228.

ADULT SINGLES WEEKEND RETREAT

Active Christian Singles Fellowship invites you to attend an interdenominational Adult Singles Weekend Retreat at Ocean Park United Methodist Camp, Ocean Park, WA June 1-3. The theme will be "Strategies in Intimacy". The facilitator and retreat master is Dick Wristen Olufs, who has 16 years of experience facilitating workshops and retreats on the formation and building of relationships. If you wish to contact him before the retreat, call 622-1833 or 622-2535. To contact a member of the planning team, call Nancy Johansen, 839-2368.

Registration is limited to 48 people. Total cost is $65.00. Mail your name, address, home church, pastor's name, and if you would like to carpool, with your check to Bonnie Offrink, Registrar, 1900 King St., Shelton, WA 98584.

AIDS AMONG US: THE CHURCH RESPONDS

This one-day conference on June 9 is designed for all South King and Pierce County congregations, to be held at Calvary Lutheran, Federal Way, 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The effect of AIDS on the church, society, and the individual will be presented by AIDS workers and persons living with AIDS. Keynote speaker will be Jim Jorgenson of the Northwest AIDS Foundation.

This conference is sponsored by LSS/NW Area, the NW District of LC-MS, and the Northwest and Southwestern Washington Synods of the ELCA. Cost is $15, including lunch. To register, call Lutheran Social Services at 365-2700 or 272-8433.

AIDS BENEFIT RECITAL

Roy Foust, tenor, and Robin Miller, pianist, will perform a recital on June 10, at 7:30 p.m. at St. John Lutheran, Seattle, as a benefit for the Multifaith AIDS Project of Seattle (MAPS). The program will include music of Brahms, Debussy, Strauss, and Vaughn Williams. Suggested donations $6-$10. Call 782-2484 for more information.

GLOBAL MISSION EVENT

A reminder to take advantage of this exciting "backyard" happening June 28-July 1 at PLU. The program includes Bible studies from Philippians, mission speakers, dozens of workshops, festive worship, programs for children and youth, and child care. Commuters are especially encouraged to take part in as many activities as possible. Registration materials have been mailed to congregations.

June 28 - July 1, 1990
Pacific Lutheran University
Tacoma, WA

SYNOD/REGIONAL FAMILY

Our congratulations to Karis Graham, who completed her "tour of duty" with Gethsemane, Seattle, and will enter the Navy chaplaincy this summer; to Diane Hastings and Thomas Rickard who will be married on May 19 at Trinity, Lynnwood; to Dean Sawhill of St. Andrew's, Bellevue, who has been selected as a single-term missionary through the ELCA Division for Global Mission. Dean will be teaching English in Madagascar . . . A correction from last month: It was reported incorrectly that Dr. Walter Hellman was Helen Solberg's father. He was, in fact, Thilda Mau's father . . . Our prayers are with Bette Ericksen whose father died recently; with three graduated seminarians assigned to our synod--Mikkel Hustad, Vicki Morse, and Chuck Bailey; and with Elizabeth Jensen, graduating from Luther Northwestern as an Associate in Ministry.

On that New Version of THE LORD'S PRAYER

The following is from the newsletter of Holy Trinity Lutheran, Hickory, North Carolina, by the Rev. James Cone:

"Worship, to me, is like coming home. I like it to be familiar and comfortable, and I've never been much of one to be constantly rearranging the furniture. But, in the matter of the Lord's Prayer...

"I've always known that there were two versions: one featuring 'debts' and the other, 'trespasses'. And now there is a third one, which speaks of 'sins'. The question is, does it simply come down to a matter of taste and preference, or is there a difference? I believe there is a difference. In the 'Confession' we refer to 'what we have done' (trespasses) and to 'what we have left undone' (debts). The Forgiveness of 'Sins' covers both categories. Thus, in this instance, the new version is more meaningful.

"And 'lead us not into temptation' is misleading at best...and sounds like an accusation when temptation does occur. But 'temptations' are times of 'hard testing' and 'trial,' out of which good things can often happen. Our prayer is really not that we should avoid them, but rather that God should see us 'safely' through them. Again, the new version is better.

"It comes down to this: the worshipper in me prefers the old and familiar King James version of the Lord's Prayer. But the part of me that remembers and takes seriously my obligation to raise up our children in a meaningful way...that part must concede that the new version is better. Which is why, at Holy Trinity, we have made the change.

"We do rearrange furniture at our house every now and then...and most of the time for the better. Familiar and comfortable come with time when we give it a chance."
